

A letter from the Moon

You are made of love and light

I'm happy you remembered it now

You are loving being

Who you are brings love and joy to people

You bring light and brightness to the world

Your suffering was a curriculum

To guide you to remember

Who you are is love

Congratulations for taking the path

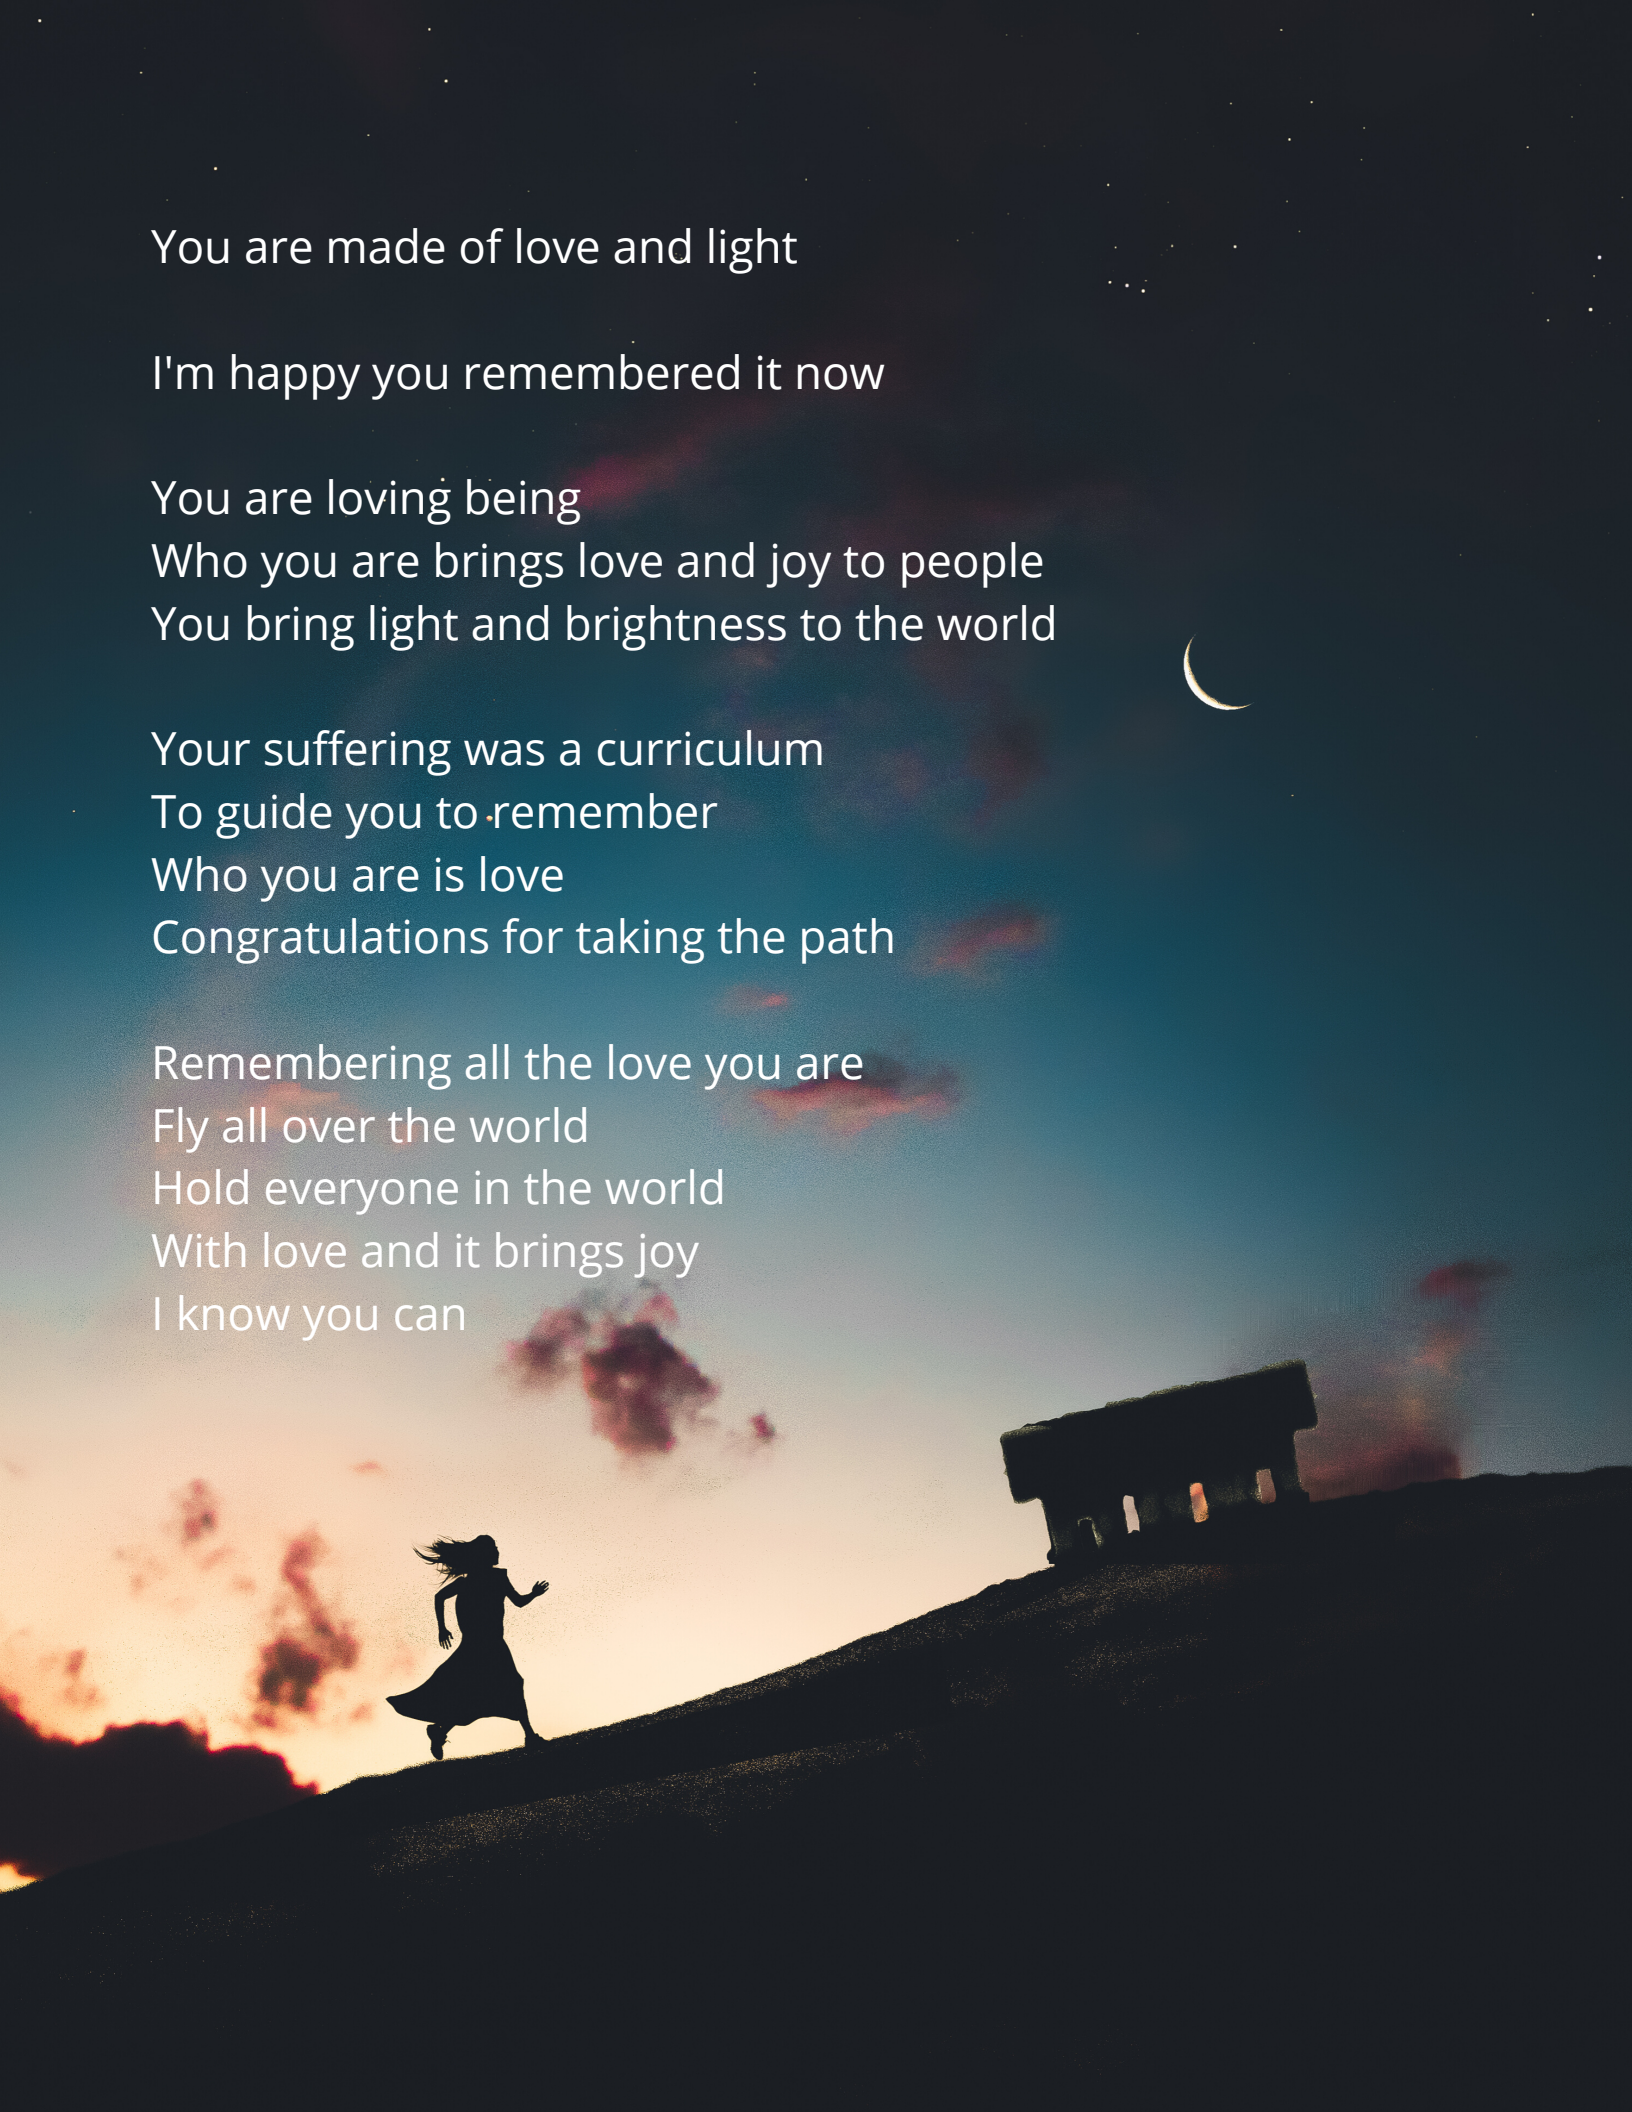

Remembering all the love you are

Fly all over the world

Hold everyone in the world

With love and it brings joy

I know you can

I have been watching you the entire times

From far far away
Beautifully
Preciously
Quietly in the darkness

Love doesn't hold a shape
It's cold sometimes and warm
Changing its shape and
Receiving everything

You are love
Thank you for being here

No need to be afraid
Everything will be accepted

You are complete
Trust
Love
Freedom
Peace

The earth is changing
You're leading
You're not alone
I am with you

You have
Love
Strength
And the heart to appreciate

The world will change
Filled with chaos
You walk the path
With your heart center

Be the change
Smile
Love
And be love

Look at the Moon when you're in doubt
